

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER FOR JOINT CUSTODY

Except as otherwise provided by any approved Parenting Plan, the provisions relating to custody, alimony, support, visitation and conduct of the parties, are subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Care and Supervision: The parties shall be jointly responsible to, and the party who has immediate physical custody shall:

- a. provide the children with: (1) regular and nutritious food; (2) clean and appropriate clothing; (3) sanitary and reasonably private living and sleeping quarters; (4) appropriate medical examinations and treatments; and, (5) guidance and counsel in worldly and spiritual matters.
- b. train the children to obey and respect their teachers and the law;
- c. require the children to attend all regular sessions of school until graduation unless excused for medical reasons or by the school or by the Court;
- d. personally supervise and control the conduct and activities of the children except when they are at school, or in known and usual recreational activities, or in the immediate care of another competent person;
- e. make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of each child.

Neither party shall:

- f. engage in, or permit in the presence of the children, any excessive drinking, immoral conduct, obscenities, violence, or disrespect for law and order.

Each party will advise the other party of:

- g. all school or police disciplinary contacts;
- h. all medical contacts and reports, including any emergency decisions which shall be communicated to the other parent as soon as reasonably practicable under the circumstances;
- i. all other important developments in the lives and activities of the children.

Each parent shall continue to have full and equal access to the education and medical records of the children unless the court orders to the contrary.

2. Joint Custody: Unless otherwise provided, joint custody requires that:

- a. both parties communicate regularly and freely with the other as to the regular transfers of physical custody and the child's clothing and personal effects, at such times as they agree from time to time;
- b. the party with physical custody will have the children, and their clothing and personal effects, ready promptly for transfer to the other party at the agreed time;
- c. if a child is invited or desires to participate in other activities which may interfere with a transfer of physical custody, the parties will not encourage, permit, or consent thereto without previous approval of the person who would be receiving physical custody if it were not for the invitation or desire, and will not deprecate the denial of such approval;
- d. the person who does not have physical custody may: (1) correspond with the children; and, (2) telephone each child at reasonable intervals for reasonable periods of time; and the person with physical custody shall not censor such correspondence or participate in such calls.

3. Interference: Neither parent will intrude upon the privacy of the other; nor falsely make or imply mean or nasty or derogatory or deprecatory statements about the other to anyone; nor prevent or restrict or in any way interfere with the other's rights granted by this Order.

4. Injunction: The petitioner and respondent and their agents and servants, and each of them, are enjoined and restrained from doing, or attempting to do, or threatening to do, any act of injuring, maltreating, vilifying or molesting the adverse party, or any of the children, or violating any of the terms of this decree or of Appendix "A."

5. Contempt: Willful violation of any of the orders or directives set forth above will be considered contempt of court. Punishment for contempt of court may be from one dollar to five hundred dollars or from one hour to six months in jail.

6. Cooperation: The parties are reminded that the Court ordered joint custody only because the parties convinced the Court that they would be able to work closely with each other in harmony for the welfare of the children, and that if the parents cannot work in such fashion the joint custody would probably be harmful to the children. In the event the joint custody should appear to not be in the best interests of the children, it must be terminated.
